Renewal of Trademark in Japan

<Renewals>

The term of a registered trademark expires 10 years from the date of registration, which can be permanently extended by paying the renewal fees every 10 years. The renewal fees are payable from 6 months prior to the expiration date until the expiration date. When paying the renewal fees, you can choose 10-year full payment or 5-year installment payment.

(If you paid the 5-year installment (for the former term) of the registration fee when the application was allowed, you need to pay the 5-year installment (for the latter term).) We will remind you of the due date when it comes close.

The cost for paying the renewal fee is as follows.

	10-year full payment	5-year installment payment
Our service fee	JPY 30,000	JPY 20,000
Official fees	JPY 43,600 per class	JPY 22,800 per class

<Please inform us of the change of your contact information or trademark owner's name or address.>

If your contact information, i.e., e-mail address, mailing address, telephone or facsimile numbers, or your contact person, is changed or will be changed soon, please let us know your new contact information, otherwise our reminder may not be delivered to you.

If the name or address of the registered trademark owner is changed, please let us know. If the change is not recorded with the Japanese Patent Office (JPO), the registered trademark may become enforceable. We highly recommend that the change be recorded with the JPO promptly.

If you have any inquiry, please let us know.

Very truly yours,
